The Back Door

RCA Theatre's Newfoundland Comedy Night is back with
APRIL FOOLS

Cabaret is RCA Theatre's latest initiative for emerging artists. This event gives participants the chance to show their work at any stage of development and get feedback from an invited mentor.

The Cabaret was made possible through a portion of Rick Mercer's generous donation of his recent Governor General's Award.

RCA Theatre accepts submissions on an ongoing basis for the Back Door Cabaret. You can still get into the cabaret on Monday April 25th - contact Erin or Diana at the Hall.

Cul-de-Sac

Created by Daniel Maclvor & Daniel Brooks.

Text & Performance by Daniel Maclvor

Direction & Dramaturgy by Daniel Brooks

Daniel Maclvor is Canada's most influential post-modern playwright. In his latest collaboration with director Daniel Brooks, Maclvor plays the role of Leonard, who narrates the events leading up to his murder while trying to understand them himself. Through the course of the play, we peer behind the curtains of his neighborhood as Maclvor transforms into the multiple characters who bear witness to Leonard's life and death.

"Maclvor's never been stronger as a performer ... Cul-de-sac might be a fancy euphemism for 'dead end', but theatrically it's a live wire."
