REVIEW ENGAGEMENT REPORT

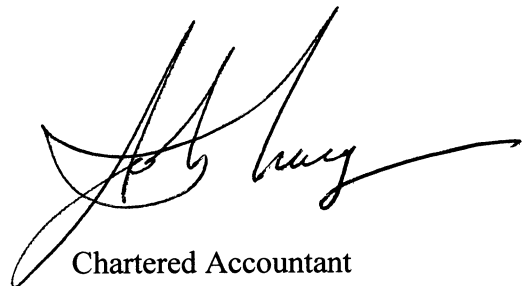

To the Members:

We have reviewed the balance sheet of Resource Centre for the Arts - Hall Operations Fund as at August 31, 2009 and the statements of revenue and expenses, accumulated surplus and cash flows for the year then ended. Our review was made in accordance with Canadian generally accepted standards for review engagements and accordingly consisted primarily of enquiry, analytical procedures and discussion related to information supplied to us by management.

A review does not constitute an audit and consequently we do not express an audit opinion on these financial statements.

Based on our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that these financial statements are not, in all material respects, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

RESOURCE CENTRE FOR THE ARTS - HALL OPERATIONS FUND

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(Unaudited)

For the Year Ended August 31, 2009

General

The fund is one of three funds that constitute the Resource Centre for the Arts. The organization operates as a charity and, as such, maintains that status for income tax purposes. The organization's mission is to develop, promote and present indigenous Newfoundland and Labrador art and artists.

1. Significant Accounting Policies:

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, the most significant of which are as follows:

Capital Assets and Amortization:

Capital assets are recorded at cost. Effective for the year ended August 31, 1999, the fund started to amortize its assets using the following methods of amortization set out below:

Equipment	20% declining balance
Computer	30% declining balance

The Resource Centre for the Arts owns a building at 3 Victoria Street, St. John's Newfoundland which has been fully depreciated.

Capital Construction Project:

The building which the Resource Centre for the Arts occupies is undergoing renovations. All costs incurred to date relating to these renovations have been capitalized. The funds received for these renovations have been segregated and are not available for current use.

Revenue Recognition:

Resource Centre for the Arts – Hall Operations Fund follows the deferral method of accounting for contributions. Contributions are recognized when received or receivable if the amount to be received can be reasonably estimated and collection is reasonably assured.

Donations are recognized on a cash basis.

Rental revenue is recognized as revenue when earned.

Interest income is recognized as revenue on an accrual basis.
